Aani Uththaram Festival on Thursday 15 July 2021

Aani Uththaram is an auspicious day in the Tamil Month of Aani (or Ani) and is dedicated to Lord Nataraja (Shiva). The festival is also known as Aani Thirumanjanam and is observed on the Uththaram Nakshatra day in Aani Masam. It is believed that it was on Aani Uththaram day that Lord Shiva appeared before Sage Manikkavasakar under a kurundai tree and offered upadesha (advice).

Thirumanjanam means 'holy bath'. On Aani Thirumanjanam day – when Uthram Nakshatra falls in Aani month – an Abhishekam is performed on Lord Nataraja. The Abhishekam or holy bath of the idol performed on the day is considered highly auspicious. Lord Nataraja is given six abishekams in a year. The explanation of this number is as follows. That duration is divided into six seasons- Margazhi- Thai, Masi-Panguni, Chiththirai- Vaikasi, Aani- Aadi, Avani-Purattasi, Aippasi- Karthikai.

It is believed that Lord Natarajara gives Tharshanam in the Tamil Months Ani and Margazi. The Lord's form demonstrates his five fold functions: creation, protection, destruction, concealment and salvation. Let us worship Lord Nataraja on Aani uththaram day get blessings from him abundantly.
