Chitra Pournami Festival on Friday 05-05-2023

Significance of Chitra Pournami

Chitra Pournami refers to the full moon day falling in the month of Chaitra that corresponds to the English month April. Goddess Durga and her forms have activated powers on full moon days or Pournami. Devotees worship her on these special days to suppress all evil effects and to get her blessing abundantly. The festival is dedicated also to Chitragupta who is believed to record the good and bad things men do to Yama on this day, devotees pray Goddess to get rid of their karma. Although all full moon and new moon days are auspicious, the full moon day of the month of Chitthirai is selected to fast for the departed mothers.
